LOSE EASY JOBS

After Years of Comfort at Headquarters Desks.

where there was ligit or no hardship and short hours have been ordered back to the fire lines by Commissioner Lantry. Sixteen, including two foremen, have had easy jobs in Manhattan, the other two in Brooklyn.

Some of these men have enjoyed the life of ease at a Headquarters desk for years. The order does not inspire these men with feelings of great joy. Some of them are out of training—the most of them are out of training—the most of them are for that matter—and the prospect of learning over again to scale ladders and do the tricks which are imposed by the new manual is enough to cause heartache with all of them. The detailed men have been is the Commissioner's office, Chief Croker's office, the Bureau of Combustibles and other terical places about Fire Hall, and the two assistant foremen have been at the training stables.

The places of these men presumably will be filled from the civil service lists.

Ralph. "There are three rings on the body and Mary had only one. Mary had on lace shoes when she went away, and the shoes on the body are buttoned. Mary did not have a blue waist and the body has. Mary did not have a lace yoke and the body has. Nor did Mary have a scar on her chin. Mary did not cown a black handbag such as was found with the body.

"When Mary went away early last Thursday she wore a long brown coal, trimmed with red ribbons and a yellow dress with dots in it. Sae and no quarrel with me nor with her brother."

The cousin who identified the body is nevertheless positive that the girl found in the park lake is her cousin. Yesterday morning Mrs. Ralph got a postal card in the missing girl's handwriting which read:
